Can North Platte Support Opera? Are there enough music loving peowho appreciate high class music to justify the management of the Keith Theatre in bringing here The Sheehan English Opera Company? That's the question. This organization, headed by Joseph F. Sheehan, the greatest of all American tenors, holds an unique position in the music world. For years it has been acknowledged the foremost English singing organination in the country. This season with such stars as Miss Mirth Car-Miss Laura Baer, Nelson R. Shanley, Harison Gray and Arnold Beaumont as his support, the famous star is making a new record especially as his offering is as high class as ly as his offering is as high class as the gap 4n the government coffers his company consisting of a triple bill, caused by the loss of revenue on imthree operas in one performance, ports cut off by the European war.
